Please ensure, that the bluetooth software is installed.

Start the bluetooth software and search for devices in range.
Double click on the device to see the services. Connect to the service by a click on the printer icon.

A new window with the number of the printer port appears. Install your printer driver and set the printer port to the port in the window.